“ Growth Rings - A trees annual rings “

The observation of a tree disc fascinates me again and again.

The annual rings give testimony about the age and reveal a lot about the good and the bad years - as it were a reflection of the development.

Marveling at the very very old trees and coming to terms with their history lets appear the current affairs in a very different context - not later than the consideration of what this tree has all "experienced".

The glass tree pane:

The colorless combination of structured glass ( Spectrum 100 Krinkle) and half transparent colored glass, brings extra life and perspective into the world of wall decoration.
